Class Prophecy

TIME: 8:00
PLACE: American Legion
OCCASION: Class Reunion
YEAR: 1985

This will be a most memorable evening in the hearts of all 1960 graduates from McHenry High. The hall seems to be getting more and more crowded all the time.

Why, look, here comes that now full fledged Johnsburger, John Olson and his crowd, made up of Bill Oeffling, Lambert Freund, and Dave Miller. They are headed for the tavern, and look who is tending bar, Harry Hettermann. He finally fulfilled his life's ambition.

While maneuvering through the crowd, we find Barbara White and her staff of registered nurses, Karen Bradkowski, and Kathy Wright, who make up the staff at St. Therese's.

Here we find the crowd of girls and their husbands who were all engaged while back at dear old McHenry. They are Angela Parratore, Beth Smith, and Dolores Freund. There are more but I don't seem to be able to see them right now.

Now we are going to have some entertainment which will be given by Lynne Buckie, Sue Etheridge, and Jean Borchardt. They are being accompanied by that successful secretary Joan Adams, who practices the piano in the outer office during her coffee breaks.

Over in the corner sits good old Mr. Cuda and some people from his sixth period sales class, Tony Weyland, Mike Writz, and of course we must not forget the used to be Big One, Marge Justen. In the opposite corner we find Mr. Fulton and his team of John Steinbach, Mike Creighton, and Jim Hester; he is giving them the low down on the team right now.

That big league baseball player, Bob Yonkus, is here with a fractured little finger.

Marilyn Fuchs, the Jazz musician, is here from New Orleans tonight. On the Bongos is John Kern.

Judy Gregory is now working at the hospital in surgery, still trying to get a—head. Ginnie Gray wheels out what's left.

Marlene Gallas is co-partner of Liggitt & Meyers.

Dennis Hansen now owns Rainbow Cleaners.

Bob Bruce is now selling cotton candy at Riverside; his corn popper is James De Wald.

Here comes that famous movie star, James Brady known on the stage as "Handsome James."

Vicki Diedrich has now started up her own baton school.

Tom Fisher has just made his first million on his brewery in McHenry.

Terry Jorden is here with his wife. Janice Wakitsch and Georgette Miller are part time nurses at the McHenry Clinic.

Shirley Jager now owns a bakery. Joyce May is a happy housewife and keeps busy with her large family. Karyn Lombardi owns the finest Pizza Place in this area.

Kirk Merley, Champion Sailfisher has just walked in. My, it's wonderful how people make room for him to pass.

Nancy Reinke and Shirley Pretzman have furnished decorations for the party; they're competitors in the florist business.

Peach Roti and her husband have just entered. She looks as cute as ever.

Rose Linden keeps busy with all her housework since she now has twelve kids.

We are sorry to hear that Carol Wilson couldn't make it here tonight.

Look, here comes that famous movie star, Lane Windheim. He is following in his father's footsteps making a mint on his looks.

Joyce Schafer has finally succeeded in becoming a full fledged housewife—her wish has come true.

Judy Michels' life dream has come true; she is now married to the pride and joy of Barrington and is raising them "cheaper by the dozen."

Glenn Gates is here playing his cool saxophone in the corner. There's a small group around him: Judy Laskowski, the lion tamer, and Virginia Kirk, who owns a small farm.

Sandy Harris is just coming in now; she made it just in time with the aid of her yacht.

Margie Jung is away in South America capturing butterflies so she wasn't able to be here tonight.

Mary Ann Hickey, the hockey pro, is here giving her viewpoints on the game.

John Gates and Ron Neukirch are up in Alaska farming. Sorry they couldn't be here tonight.

Mike Niesen and Mickey Schafer didn't quite make it to Alaska; they're in Canada hunting for pink mice.

Barb Nicholas supplied part of the refreshments for tonight; she now owns a candy store on Green Street.

Bob Miller built the first motorcycle and scooter factory in McHenry and he's pretty proud of the fact.

Anna Marie Lopez has added much to this community by being our first social worker.

Kaaren Olson is now a very happy housewife and enjoys her family.

Pat Paul and Roberta Neff are working on Wall Street.

Vick Tanny's has come to McHenry thanks to John Sexton and Mary Alice O'Connor. Pat Johnson and Sue Spuehr assist them.

Mike Wirtz, Tony Weyland, and Roger Zahn now have the biggest garage business in this country.

Gail Johnson is now married to Rog and she owns the Johnson Boat Company. Frank Stetson and Keith Peters work for her.

Art Kreutzer, Art Sternickle, and James Koepke are now Professors at UCLA.

Jay Walkington is a marvelous minister and now has his own parish.

Henry Houck is also here; he is now a Representative of our state.

Nancy Jurack is now a great artist and in her spare time helps out at the McHenry Library.

Harold Justen is now happily married to Sandy Lawrence and now owns his own bar in Johnsburg. Al Otto and Richard Reining are also owners of such establishments.

Jim Hester and Jerry Thennes now own their fathers' oil companies and are great competitors.

Audrey Albrecht is now on a safari in Africa.

Chuck Anderson and Bill Brown are now traveling salesmen for Ladies Undies, Inc.

Jim Freund is now in the Olympics, a great basketball player.

Lee Johnson and Richard Johnson are working on a new invention—instant water.

Ron Howard is now happily married to a girl from Class '61.

Ken Homo is a Legionaire just like his father, except that he's in the foreign legion.

Ken Paciask and Brian Baker are marshmallow manufacturers.

Karen Bailey and Mary Carr are very good teachers in Edgebrook Grade School.

Angelo Budasi is now a hermit in outer Mongolia.

Sharon Counley is a secretary for a Salmon Factory in Alaska.

George Darmody and Lolita DuPree are happily married.

Bolger's best Pharmacist, Lance Parks, has walked in with that Millstream cashier, Kathy Prawl.

John Ripley is here tonight only because he made a fast trip from Greenwich Village.

Alan Maxstadt's over in the corner revising Einstein's theory.

Pat O'Brien is now grand champion water skier of America.

Bebe Liedtke is now making china dolls patterned after herself.

Steve Major is now a PFC; he has been in the Army 20 years.

Ann Peschke has been running a school of cheerleaders for the last five years.

Frank Scolaro sells hot Fords.

Lee Losch and Mike Low are trying to raise a camp for beatnik followers. Their first pupil is Glenn Reid.

Bev Spohr is a fashion model in New York and flew here tonight. On the plane she met Carol Stritar, who is now an airline hostess.

Lynn Brubach is a Congresswoman and is in Washington tonight so she couldn't be here.

Gail Cannon is the first female fireman in this area.

Dick Hackard isn't here tonight because of injuries incurred in a free for all stock car race.

Karen Krolowetz and Joyce Eckstein own a well known musical instrument shop in McHenry.

Judy Watson and Sue Tychewicz are avid integrationists.

Leon Stefanek is a game warden in Wisconsin and is here but suffering from a little mishap. He shot himself in the arm.

Darlene Friedle, that wonderful Sunday school teacher is here tonight with Elaine Clinton, the taxedermist.

Jerry Coarson, the mortician has been having pretty stiff business but he was able to make it any way.

Bill Beutel, the loafer, is now a baker and rolling in the dough.

Matt Wolf is now a nuclear physicist.

Dan Sompel and Frank Perry now have very successful farms.

Ben Cheline is now in a Round Robin tournament, his worthy opponent is Chuck Chrisman.

Among the social workers here tonight are Janice May, and Joan Lubinski.

Denny Vaughan now has his own dance studio and is here with his prize pupil, Janet Wright, who is a part time model at Patricia Stevens.'

Ken Tindell is now a mathematician at the University of Illinois.

Lucy Williams was voted the model mother of her community; she has eight children.

Betty Shaw and Cherie Shappert are social workers and are here socializing tonight.

Judy Walsh is now P.E. instructor at MCHS; in her spare time she runs Wattle's Drug Store.

Sharon Ozog made it here tonight in her white Cadillac.

Bob Haug is here also; he is now a successful architect and is busy building an ocean to keep all his boats in.

Don Parisi and LeRoy Hartwig are coming now. They're both well-known lawyers and are in a TV series on Channel 7.

Sandra Whiting and Jean Borchardt, the wonderful school teachers that got straight A's when they were in college, are here tonight.

Jesse and Jerry Freund are now partners in the Real Estate Company of McHenry.

Tom "Woody" Widhalm is a coach at MCHS and now sees why the faculty is so busy all the time.

Sandy Nellis has finally succeeded in putting in the fourth picture window in her house, so she can watch that blue Chevy go past.

We have a very good art instructor in MCHS, Barbara Skrentny.

McHenry is grateful to Paul Steffan for answering the call of the much needed orthodontists.

Karen Antonson is working in New York as a famous dress designer.

Vicki Diedrich is instructing P.E. at the University of Illinois.

Gary Baseley, Art Hirsch, John Kelson, and Donald Kibbe are now employed as mechanics for Ford Corporation.

Sue Etheridge and Pat Hogan are private secretaries in Chicago.

Darrell Davidson has taken Jack Paar's place on TV. Josie Bellino, the great comedian, often appears on his show.

Pat Birmingham is an airplane instructor and just announced that he is going to give free airplane rides for everyone here tomorrow.

Mike Meeker is now a famed artist and he is here tonight discussing Picasso's latest work.

Ruth Schoenholtz is now a fashion model in New York and we are fortunate enough to have her here tonight.

George Vergara and John Cristy are very well-known, and liked, as TV comedians.

Dennis Diedrich the jet pilot flew here from Japan in thirty minutes.

Connie Dowell is now a nurse at the McHenry Hospital and she is nursing Nancy Weber back to health after she sprained her toe skating; Dr. Dick Sprague is assisting her.

Veronica Walsh and Carol Diedrich are struggling to make their ice cream business succeed; they sell in the Arctic zone.

Diane Wisniewski owns the finest formal dress shoppe in McHenry and is wearing one of her best gowns tonight.

We are sorry that Dorothy Pope isn't here tonight but she's away for a good reason. She is a missionary in the Belgian Congo.

Terry Tonyan, the happy housewife, has many children.

Barb Schlick isn't here tonight because she is sailing the seas with her husband.

Louis Felicetti, that terrific advertiser, is here tonight even though he has a big lawsuit on his hands.

Ann Koehler, the space woman, is here but she is busy planning her next space trip.

Those two fabulous band owners just came in—Barb Krickel and Bruce Novak.

Bill Gee and Dennis Kaiser are enjoying their first million; they made it through stocks and bonds.

June Jensen is now following her motto of: "cheaper by the dozen." She and Dick are very happy.

We're so glad that so many of the class of '60 graduates were able to be here tonight and happy to hear from the others.

All in all this is a class reunion to be remembered.

"60"

Dear Tudy,

This has been the best year. I hope next year will be even better, and we have just as much fun then as we have, and still are having now. I'm not going to try and say anything witty or cute - or just good luck because mostly what I've wanted to tell you I've said, and don't think I should now again.

Remember all the fun we've had? I can still remember you at 2:00 A.M., trying to keep me awake — trying oh yes - very trying!! All the times we've been together haven't all been smooth - there have been rough spots there too - but I think we've smoothed them down some! I've made quites a few mistakes too - but at least I think my memory is getting better - about calling people? Well at least my "excuses" are getting better.

But we have had fun - over Queenie and the goldfish (what's it's name?) - and your great love for the fish - mine for queenie? Oh yes - there are two little fish asleep - trying to sleep — and dream. May I keep them — always? Or do I get another - better not - "two's a couple....."

I told you I'd try to write two pages - just out of spite to beat Judy - "Panda" - but I don't think I can quite get away with it. Anyhow I'll try. I don't have a little rubber band (The one that made history) but - I think I more than that.

I'd like to make one great big apology know - one that will last for all the numerous fights we ~~had~~ have had - one that will last for the ones to come - but it would seem morbid to say "I'm sorry" when know we are supposed to be writing clever little sayings.

Maybe next year we can remember to be beatniks. If you'll try hard this summer to grow a mustache - so will I - when we see each other later we can pretent to be a couple of ex - Rip Van Winkle - er's - with sun glasses yet.

But anyhow Judy, we have had fun - a real blast and a half -. But keep smiling - if you do I might break down & say - Yup - I think she is getting cuter!

Love'n' Stuff

P.S. - I'm proud of myself -
2 Pages !!!!!!!!!

dear Tudy (2-D)

How have you been? I sure hope we can get together this summer or next year. We sure had fun last year and the year before driving everyone + everything out of their dear little minds. I'd love to do it again!?!! Maybe we'll get in the same class (heaven help the poor teacher). At least we could have gym together. Say Hi to Queenie for me. She'll understand? Your a sweet kid and I wish you the very best of luck (you need it) in the future. (just kidding)

(We're never on time)

Dear Judanum,

We have had a lot of fun together, 3rd Period. Remember the wild times we had. And how about the day we were dancing around the room.

I'll always remember the day I was on the chair in a "certain way" and was laughing so hard. Also, how about the time we selected our wedding dates. My future better half hasn't changed, but now you're haunting the files.

And don't forget the fun we had just leaving 9H. I'll never forget your face as you struggled up the stairs. And when you bounce down the halls' walls, remember me, your partner in crime.

Love ya,

Judy, Jukebox, Panda & Judanum

(Remember Good Luck to one the day I become a mommy!) Remember, we have a date - June, 1966

Judy,

I've enjoyed this year (has been) the nicest yet. I enjoyed having you in Geometry class & me in Geometry class. I hope you did well on the last test. I appreciate very much your letting me come over to see program we watched for Miss Paprocki. I've enjoyed also your "kids" (kiddings) about my "hobby". I was wondering how you's was coming along. Well, I think I've taken up enough room in your annual, so I'll be brief. I hope we are together again next year in some class. Happiness & Good Luck forever & ever, also the best of everything is what I wish for you!

Love
Dorothy
(George) will you?

P.S. Take good care of Asenet,

P.S. (ME AGAIN)

Some day I'll come down & Polish Guy Patrick's fins, that is when you & Ted stop throwing chalk at each other, & we get a bulletin board up on time.

Remember Beulah?

ah, life.

Love ya still

Judy, Judarum, Panda, & Jukebox.

P.S.S. Also, I'll always remember the way those two Elgin escapees who laughed at our bee-u-tee-ful letters. Oh, well, the men in white coats are coming soon.

P.S.S.S.

I'm sorta kinda running out of ink, so I really must close, the period's almost over.

Good Luck and Best Wishes in all you do, its been a pleasure knowing you & I hope we continue our friendship forever.

you. Thanks for drawing all those pictures I just couldn't seem to do. Lets always be great friends, and may your future be a wonderful one.

Trudy,
To had me have to be in Hym class together.
It sure is a lot of fun. In all the years I've known you, you could've have been made not God, any better!
Love and Luck

- Trudy -
it has been a pleasure to have you in Latin class this year. our class should have more nice kids like you then we would be better off. good luck

Yellow cheat!
Just kidding?
What will you do without your "upper"
I hope you fairly class fun as I
be. always stay as honest and sweet as you have been this last year. I couldn't have found a better Biology partner. Years of school we have always had a ball together in everything. YH.A would'nt be any fun without you there to live it up. Best of Luck in the future.

Judy, knowing
I enjoyed & hope I still next year. Good school years which also in you and see you luck in the

you will finish;
the future.

- Little mouse - I don't know you very well, but I sure have heard a lot about you from a certain blond -- (It's all been good) It's been fun hearing about you, & I hope in the future
I'll hear a lot more!
Good luck in the coming years!
Nancy Volby

To the kid who sits in front of me in biology class:
enjoyed kibbing you and I am sorry I won't be able to see you next year.
As much as I know and have seen of you it has all fit with my approval.
Your friend (I hope)

Dear Judy
It's been known lots of fun like you a character like you
"Remember Mr. Hemlocks always" Mr. Good Luck in finding a man.
Love Pat

"Dear Judy"
Stay Break up if I do you either half for the little brothers, Have fun in the next 4 years of High school
Chuck

Judy,
I'll never forget you in your toga. You make the wildest Roman of our age. It's been a real real loafing year in Geo, especially your last loafing year in Geo, especially Be good and don't forget to be good & good luck study
Love Joan (stay)

Dear Ruth (Judy)
Have fun in your last two years of high school. Lots of luck and happiness in the future to a very sweet girl.
Sincerely,
Barbara Sadow

Judy,
Best of luck always & always stay as sweet as you are now & you will always have many friends. You're a real character. Lots of Luck
Sandy

"Judy"
Latin II class was made more fun by your presence. Stay as sweet as you are and never lose your wonderful laugh.
As always 'class of 62'
Sandy

Judy,
Good luck in your upperclassmen years and even after that.
Sincerely,
Judy Laskowski
